April-May-June, 1967

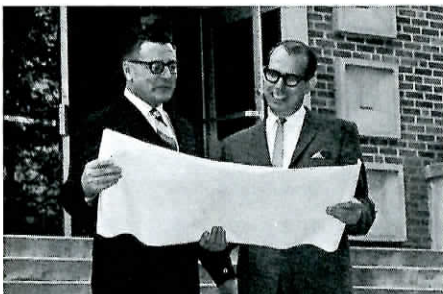

No. 4

New Academic Dean Heads Accreditation Drive

Dr. Donald G. Scott of Tallahassee, Fla., was appointed dean of the College, effective April 1, replacing Dr. Karl E. Keefer, Jr., who resigned last June after nine years as dean to accept a teaching position at the University of Tennessee Center for Advanced Graduate Study at Memphis State University. Dr. Scott received his Ph.D. in higher education from Florida State University in December, 1966.

A native of New England, Dr. Scott earned his bachelor of arts degree at Bowdoin College with a major in biology. He holds the master of science degree in zoology from the University of Miami at Coral Gables, Fla. His experience includes teaching at Miami Dade Junior College and in the Dade County public schools. Mrs. Scott is a native Floridian and has taught art education in the public schools. The Scotts have four sons—Don, John, David, and Daniel. In Dayton they are making their home in Edgewater.

Dr. Scott's doctoral dissertation involved the study of regional accreditation in small colleges. These institutions were members of the Council for the Advancement of Small Colleges of which Bryan is also a member. It is expected that Dr. Scott's experience with these colleges will be of value as he helps to lead Bryan to achieve a fully accredited standing.

Dr. Scott and Dr. Mercer study Bryan plans.

34th Annual Commencement Speakers Listed

Rev. Lester E. Pipkin, Bradley, W. Va., and Lt. Col. Elmer H. (Jim) Ammerman, Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, Ind., are the speakers for the thirty-fourth annual commencement concluding the thirty-seventh year of the College. Mr. Pipkin, who is president of Appalachian Bible Institute, will preach the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday afternoon, May 28, and Chaplain Ammerman will address the graduating seniors on Tuesday morning, May 30.

The oratorio ELIJAH by Mendelssohn will be presented by the music department on Sunday evening. Visiting artists for the performance are Dr. Karl Keefer, former Bryan dean, pianist, and Ed Miller, baritone, Lumberton, N. C., who will sing the title role.

Dr. Pipkin

BACCALAUREATE SPEAKER

Mr. Pipkin is a graduate of Moody Bible Institute and holds the bachelor of arts degree from Bemidji (Minn.) State Teachers College and the bachelor of divinity from Bethel Theological Seminary, St. Paul, Minn. He is founder and president of the Appalachian Bible Fellowship, a home missionary society which engages in several ministries, including that of the Bible Institute.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Mr. Ammerman holds the bachelor's degree from Drury College, Springfield, Mo., and the bachelor of divinity degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Ft. Worth, Texas. His military experience includes three years with the Navy during World War II. After eight years in the pastorate, he returned to the military in 1954, entering the army chaplaincy. His overseas tours of duty have included

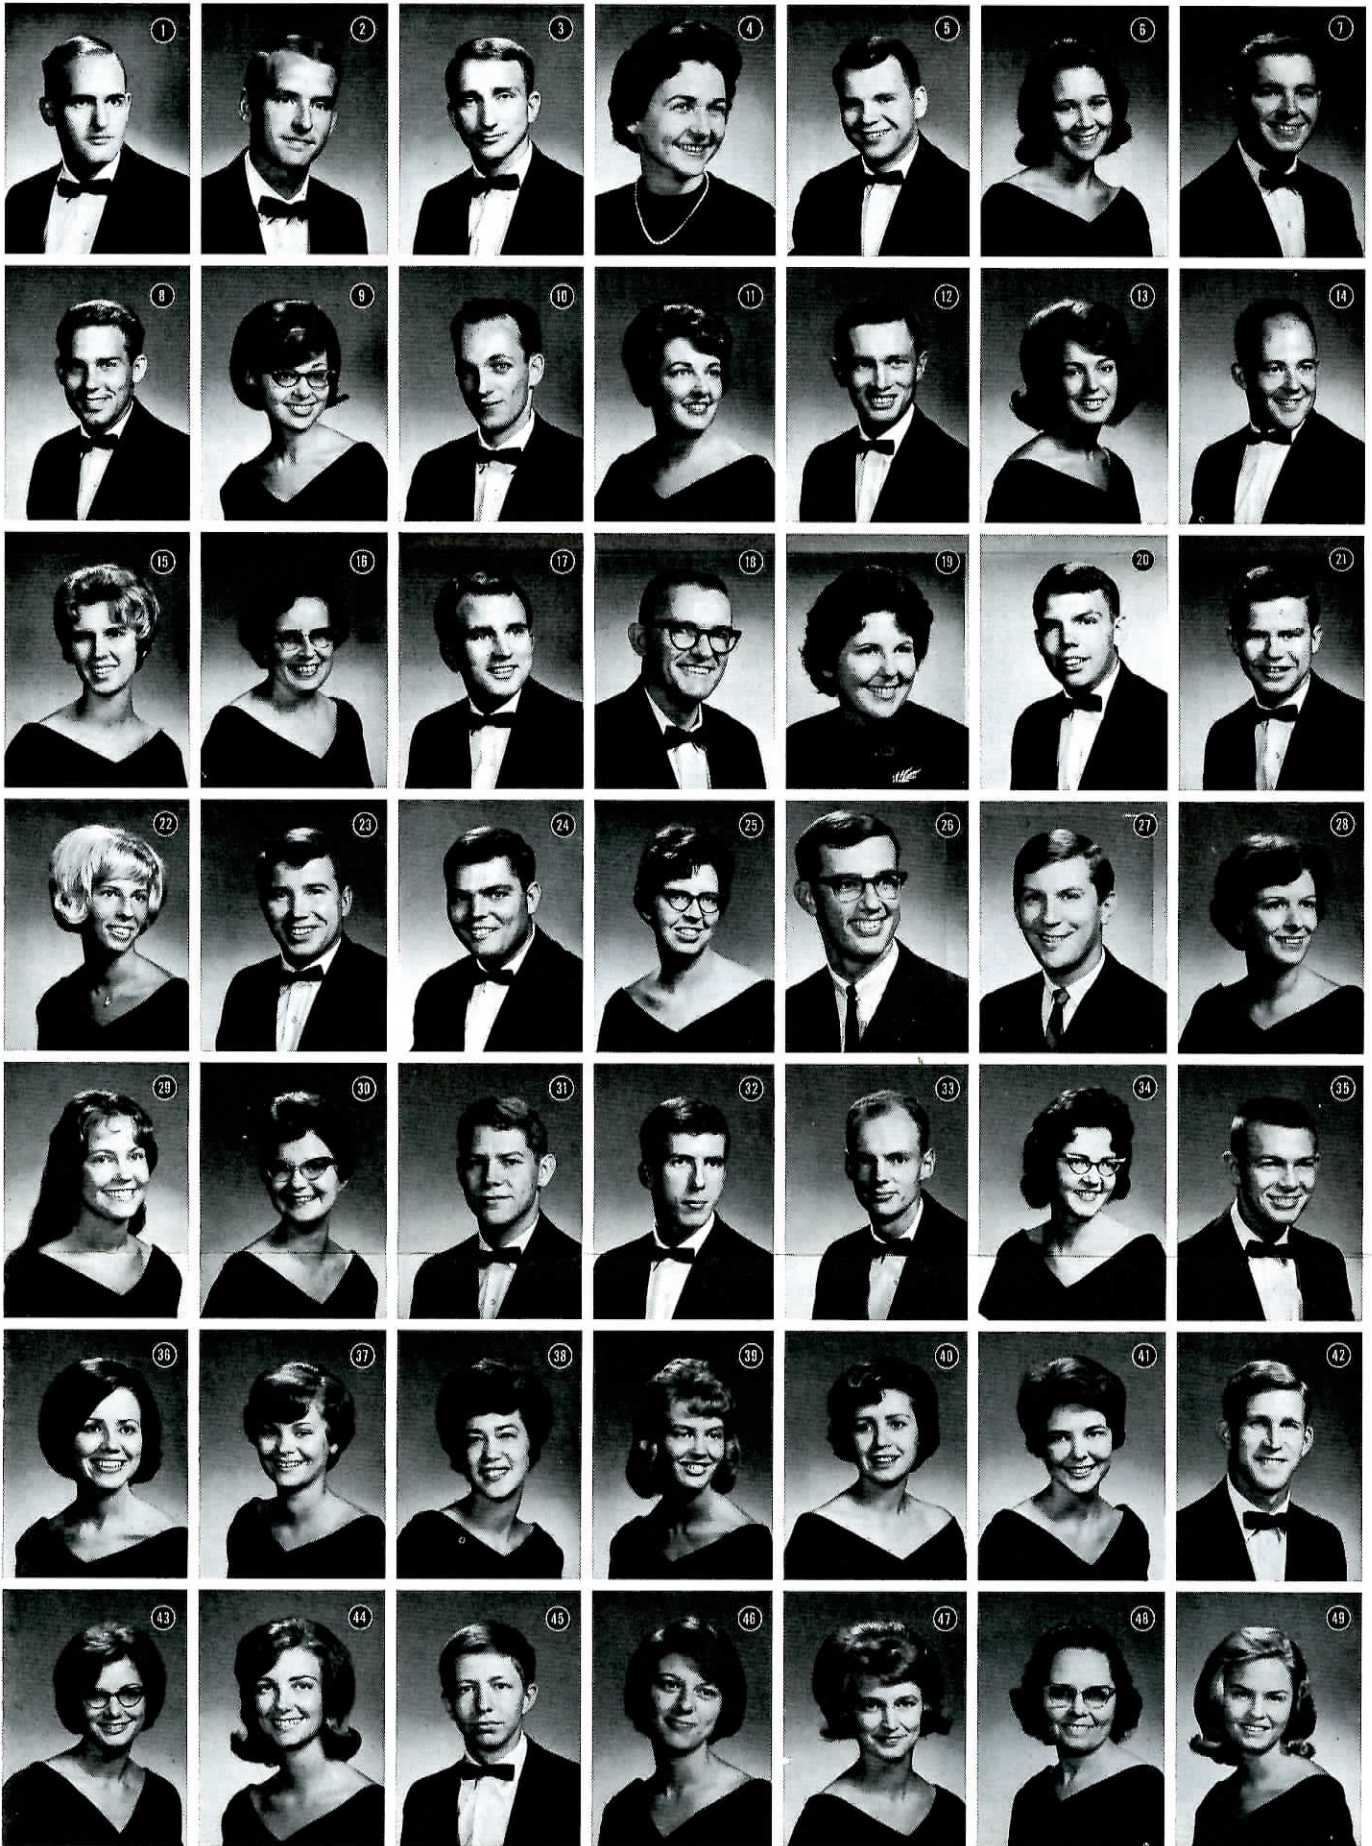

Chaplain Ammerman

Japan and Germany. From 1957-60 he was stationed at Ft. Campbell, Ky., with the 101st Airborne Division artillery, then under the command of General William C. Westmoreland. It was at Ft. Campbell that Bryan alumnus James Barth '57 served on Chaplain Ammerman's staff. He has filled the post of Protestant chaplain at Ft. Benjamin Harrison for the past two years.

Wade Challenges; Gym Proposed at FCA Banquet

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes banquet held at Bryan in April featured professional quarterback Bill Wade as speaker, and the FCA male chorus as musicians.

Bill Wade of the Chicago Bears delivered a stirring appeal at the well-attended sports fete, challenging young people to a life of true courage, excitement, and determination—the Christian life.

Other guests included Marion Gaston and Nick Senter of Chattanooga who are leaders in the FCA in this area, several high school coaches, and thirty athletes from Tennessee high schools. Heading the list of coaches were Wayne Dixon, '64, and Richard Williamson, '60, who have recently completed a highly successful season at Rhea Central High School in Dayton.

Athletic director Jack Wells, in his turn to the podium, requested all to pray earnestly that a new gymnasium will be quickly realized. A skit acted out by the Bryan athletes depicted the urgent need for a new intercollegiate sports complex.

The purpose of the FCA is specifically to encourage athletes into a closer fellowship with the Lord Jesus Christ. Paul Timblin, a junior and an active participant in soccer, baseball, and basketball, is the captain of the Bryan FCA chapter and vice president elect of the student body next year.

Jon Abercrombie, recently elected as next year's student body president, officiated as emcee at the banquet.

Gospel Messengers Summer Tour Schedule

The itinerary listed below, as of press time, indicates some open dates, most of which have been tentatively offered but have not been confirmed. Many of these tentative engagements will not materialize. Therefore, anyone who may be interested in booking the team for one of these open dates should contact the director of public relations immediately. The team is usually given Mondays off for rest and relaxation; however, anyone desiring a Monday engagement should write, since other days off sometimes develop because of problems in booking in certain areas.
